Up North

It is a pleasure to be able to include patron artwork from our 27 member libraries. Artwork was submitted by participants of all ages and all ability levels. Patrons demonstrated enthusiasm for creating a coloring book drawing that depicts life Up North and captures the regional pride of children and adults. This coloring book is an expression of heritage, memories, and feelings about what is like to live Up North in Minnesota.

Thank you to every participant, all of the libraries and the State Legislature. All of you made this book possible.

Libraries that participated in this coloring book included:

Aurora Public Library
